

America and Americans are best served by having free and easy access to a multiplicity of views, opinions, and outlooks. This basic democratic premise will not be enhanced by allowing one voice ownership of many news media outlets, which is apparently the aim of the FCC. I urge you to not allow this to happen; the cost to our way of life will be irreparable, no less so than the threat posed by faceless terrorists who attempt to subvert our freedoms.